

Date of Posting: January 27, 2021
Company/Employer: QM Environmental Position: Estimator

Position Description:

This position is responsible for preparing accurate and detailed estimates for projects, following bid and project specifications. Working closely with project management teams you will be part of Canada's best and most experienced Abatement / Hazardous Materials teams, providing solutions on high profile environmental projects.

Key Duties:

- Prepare accurate and detailed cost estimates
- Evaluate bid specifications and drawings to bid and win projects
- Follow up with sub-contractors
- Analyze blueprints and other documentation to prepare estimates
- Assess cost effectiveness of products and projects or services
- Visits job sites (existing and potential)
- Confer with engineers, architects, owners, contractors and subcontractors on changes
- Continuously build relationships with outside stakeholders
- Actively look for opportunities to grow QM's business
- Prepare cost and expenditure statements
- Set up cost monitoring and reporting systems

Key Qualifications:

Required: Bachelor's degree, minimum five (5) years of experience and following demonstrated capabilities:

- Preparing detailed and accurate cost estimates for industrial and commercial HAZMAT projects
- Thorough understanding of the Hazardous Materials / Abatement industry in Canada
- Ability to read and interpret blueprints, drawings and specifications
- Strong knowledge of controls, estimating and engineering
- Understanding of construction bids, bid processes, and contracts
- Knowledge of relevant local regulations and legislation

Preferred: Degree program related to engineering (Civil or Environmental) and

- Ability to keep up with workload, handling a wide range of estimates and change-orders
- Overseeing material and square footage take-offs while maintaining budget and cost controls

How to Apply:

Email your resume to Careers@QMenv.com or apply online at :
//www.qmenv.com/careers/available-opportunities/